165th JUDICIAL DISTRICT

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

Plaintiffs Original Petition, Application for Temporary Restraining Order, Temporary Injunction and Appointment of a Receiver was submitted to the Court on _____, September ____, 1990, and after considering Plaintiffs' Original Petition, Application for Temporary Restraining Order, Temporary Injunction and Appointment of a Receiver, as verified by J. Gary Shaw on behalf of The Matsu Corporation, the exhibits attached thereto and incorporated therein and argument of counsel, the Court is of the opinion that a temporary restraining order should be granted, the Defendant Joe H. West having been given notice of the request failed to appear without notice. The Court is further of the opinion that if notice was given to Joe H. West and Truth, Truth, Truth Inc. and that there would be a significant risk of the disappearance, destruction or removal of the property. The Court further finds that unless Joe H. West and Truth, Truth, Truth, Inc. and all others acting in concert with them or on their behalf are temporarily restrained from removing the property from its current location, destroying the property or otherwise doing anything with or to the property, it may be that such property will be lost forever. The Court further finds that Matsu
